

WOMAN KILLS RIVAL

Mrs. Sallie Brown, of Baltimore, Is Shot Dead.

HUSBAND'S LOVE IS STOLEN

Mrs. John E. Maith Pawns Watch to Pay Divorce Proceedings—When She Finds Husband with Another Woman She Confronts Him, but He Flees—Tennis Drive Her to Death.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 25.—When Mrs. Sallie Brown laughed in the face of Mrs. John E. Maith and dared the latter to win back her husband, Mrs. Maith shot and killed Mrs. Brown.

The Maiths had separated and the wife had instituted divorce proceedings, yet she refused to give up her husband.

To-day Maith called on his wife and said if he did not get $10 to pay the lawyer for defending him in the divorce suit he would go to jail. Mrs. Maith pawned her watch and paid the lawyer.

A few hours later she found her husband in the home of Mrs. Brown, at 1234 Knox court. She looked through the parlor window and saw protestations of affection. Then she boldly entered, while her husband disappeared through the rear of the house.

Upstairs Mrs. Brown.

She confronted Mrs. Brown, a woman much larger than herself, and weighing 200 pounds. She told Mrs. Brown that she would be ashamed to steal the affections of her husband, when Mrs. Brown said she intended to keep Maith as long as she wanted, laughed at Mrs. Maith, and then sat down in a chair enjoying the wife's discomfiture. Mrs. Maith drew a revolver from a satchel she carried and fired twice. Mrs. Brown was killed instantly.

Mrs. Maith surrendered herself at a police station. She supported an aged father by sewing.

Mrs. Brown was a widow and the mother of two children.

Maith is engineer at the Skinner Dry Dock.

FEW SLAYERS CONVICTED.

Out of Seventeen Murders, Only Two Men Made to Pay Penalty.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 25.—Within the past two years seventeen men have been murdered in Russell County, while the county courts have only two convictions to show.

There is probably not another county in the State that can show a similar record. It is said that the juries in Russell County are almost sure to disagree rather than to convict.

Some of the murders in question are represented as having been cold-blooded and premeditated. The cases have, in many cases, been compromised by the Commonwealth, such results being most unsatisfactory to the people at large.

FEARS DIVORCE, ENDS LIFE.

Former Employee of Washington Navy Yard a Suicide.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 25.—William F. Ferguson, of 309 Federal street, Mechanics port, Pa., committed suicide in this city this afternoon upon receiving a summons to appear in that city in the matter of an application for divorce brought by his wife.

Ferguson had been in this city for three days, having come here from Washington, where he had recently been dismissed from the navy yard. His appointment and dismissal were found in his pocket, together with the summons by the Pennsylvania court.

It is believed that the loss of his position in Washington and the knowledge that he was due to depondency, because of his domestic troubles.

Mrs. Elmina V. Hensell Dead.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Winchester, Va., Nov. 25.—After a lingering illness of locomotor ataxia, Mrs. Elmina Virginia Hensell, widow of Chas. W. Hensell, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edmund Smith, at Stephen City, this county, to-day, aged sixty-eight years. Mrs. Hensell was a Miss Pierce and a member of an old and prominent Clarke County family. One daughter, Mrs. Smith, and one son, Clarence W. Hensell, of Winchester, survive.

Two Guilty of Gambling.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 25.—In the Criminal Court to-day Barton L. Potter pleaded guilty to the charge of maintaining a gambling place in Hagerstown, and was fined $50 and allowed to remain on his own recognizance. The other defendant, D. B. Shaw, wife of the proprietor of the Spangler Hotel, indicted along with her husband for permitting gambling in the hotel, pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs.

Boy Faints at Hearing.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 25.—During the course of his present hearing before Justice J. N. Davis on the charges of murdering his young playmate, Walter Struck, thirteen years old, Harry Smith, this morning fainted and was unconscious for nearly a quarter of an hour. Justice Davis held the accused for the trial of the April court, and after he had been revived he was taken back to the county jail.

MARYLAND NEWS IN BRIEF.

Boys, Nov. 25.—The shipments of apples this year from this State, Germantown, Baltimore, and Delmarva has been the largest in the history of Maryland.

Rockville, Nov. 25.—Joseph H. Ennis, the negro who killed Bernard Smith, another negro, with a shotgun, pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree this morning. He was sentenced to eighteen years in the Maryland penitentiary.

Elkton, Nov. 25.—Governor-elect Austin L. Phelps, who has been confined to his room at the Elkton Hotel for several days with an attack of indigestion, has fully recovered, and left Elkton this morning for Atlantic City, where he has gone to recuperate.

Cambridge, Nov. 25.—Some days ago Alphonso Clifton Gray was expelled from Lector's school, in Drabridge street, Dorchester County, by the teacher, Miss Nellie Jump, acting under the instructions from the trustees, who believe the boy has been ill in his veins.

Boys, Nov. 25.—Miss Rosa Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Austin, who has been ill of typhoid fever, is now near with a complication of fevers, and her life is despaired of. She has many friends and relatives in this section and at Kensington and in Washington.

Rockville, Nov. 25.—It is said that Aaron E. Hewitt, Iowa ballist of Rockville, has employed counsel to bring suit against Martin O. Burris, a Rockville merchant, for slander, using damages at $20,000. No suit has actually been brought, as reported yesterday, but may be within the next few days.

Army and Navy Day Celebrated at Jamestown Exposition.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—This was Army and Navy Day at Jamestown, and representing the navy was Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, and the Army Brig. Gen. George B. Davis, judge advocate general.

The officers of the twin services were the principal speakers of the day. Both were comparatively brief, but patriotic and to the point, as army and navy officers are wont to be.

A review of Lee parade, of all the troops at the exposition by the distinguished officers preceded the delivery of the speeches, which occurred in the auditorium.

HOLDS ROADS RESPONSIBLE.

Richmond Judge Says Common Carriers Must Pay for Damage.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 25.—In rendering decision to-day in two suits against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company in favor of the defendant company, Judge Ingram, sitting in the law and equity court, said that section 1294-L of the code of Virginia, 1904, was unconstitutional.

The court based the opinion upon the case of the control of Georgia Railway Company against Murphy, recorded in 196 United States reports.

The court referred to the fact that the responsibility of common carriers in transporting freight, and holds that the railway companies are responsible for damage to any property while in transit.

CHILDREN WIN IN WILL SUIT

Celebrated Wallen Case Decided Against Widow of Stonecutter.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 25.—The celebrated Wallen case was finally settled by a jury in the Chancery Court this afternoon. The verdict being in favor of the children of the late William Wallen, the eccentric old stonemason having cut his children by a former marriage off without a penny and left all his property to his young widow.

The original suit was decided in favor of the children, who sought to break the will, but the widow appealed, the present trial being the result of the action of the Supreme Court in remanding the case for retrial.

The children alleged that the widow had used undue influence and a certain hypnotic power to induce her husband to make a will in favor of her children.

The widow fought the case with a great determination. All the ground covered in the first trial was again covered, the testimony of the witnesses being merely repetition. The result by a second jury was the same as with the first.

FORGED WILL CASE ON TRIAL.

William H. Skillman Accused of Seeking Part of Estate.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 25.—The second trial of William H. Skillman, former president of the New Jersey Horticultural Society, for forging the will of his friend and neighbor, the late William Lanehart, attracted a great crowd to-day.

Judge Schenck, who had rendered a decision unfavorable to the defendant in the Orphans' Court, exchanged benches with Judge Booram. A panel of forty-eight jurors was exhausted before twelve men satisfied with the case and twelve were impaneled.

The first witnesses called were Surrogate A. Gibby Spencer, who identified the alleged forged will as the document filed by Skillman, Joseph C. Harrison and Orville B. Ackley, who were familiar with Lanehart's handwriting, testified that in their opinion the signature to the will which bequeathed Skillman half of the Lanehart estate, valued at $15,000, was not written by Lanehart.

The case will be continued to-morrow.

ASK CHANGE OF VENUE.

Attorneys for Harry K. Thaw Have His Trial Postponed.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Nov. 25.—The second trial of Harry Kendall Thaw, set for one week from to-morrow, will again be postponed, and there is little chance that it will be called until some date well along in January.

The decision to ask for a postponement has been agreed to by both sides. It is due partly to the fact that the task of selecting a jury would be made doubly hard by the approach of the holidays and the prospect before the holidays of the trial of the Christmas and New Year's Day locked up under the care of court bailiffs.

As an added cause for delay there is a rumor that the attorneys now representing Thaw may apply for a change of venue, declaring a fair trial for their client in New York County is impossible.

Negroes Indorse Foraker.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 25.—Senator J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, was indorsed for the Presidency by the negro Republicans of fourteen wards of St. Louis, at a mass meeting to-night. Resolutions adopted declared that Foraker's candidacy will restore confidence and arouse old-time Republican spirit. They also declared for continued protection of American industries and labor.

May Fight Railway Laws.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 25.—The arrival of Milton H. Smith, president; H. L. Stone, general counsel, and former Congressman Bowie, special counsel of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad indicates intention on the part of the railroad to further contest the railroad laws just passed. Though nothing can be given out, the indication seems to be favorable for more litigation in the Federal court.

Physicians Have a Blacklist.

Berlin, Nov. 25.—The Doctors' Union of Eastern Prussia has passed a resolution to draw up and distribute among its members a blacklist containing the names and addresses of patients who are dilatory in paying their doctor bills. Such people, it is declared, are found mostly among the wealthy.

Safe Blowers Get $1,000.

Beecher Falls, Vt., Nov. 25.—Burglars apparently well equipped with explosives and other safe-breaking implements, entered the Maine Central Station during the night, blew open two safes, and escaped with more than $1,000 in cash. It is believed they crossed the Canadian boundary.

New York Surrogate Dead.

New York, Nov. 25.—Frank Fitzgerald, surrogate of New York County, died at his home on the Riverside Drive to-day. He had been ill for some time, but was not thought to be dangerously sick.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

David B. Cook, 84 Years Old, Commits Suicide.

DESPONDENT OVER ILL HEALTH

About Fifty Sons of Confederate Veterans Meet to Organize Camp. Another Meeting to Be Held December 9—The Will of Mrs. Elvira Hill Is Admitted to Probate.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone 323 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 25.—Despondent over continual ill health and apparently suffering from a disordered mind, David B. Cook, eighty-four years of age, Union army veteran, this morning committed suicide by shooting himself in the head at the residence of Frank Smith, 504 Cameron street, with whom he boarded.

The deceased fired the shot while in his bed. Death was instantaneous. Coroner Moore, after learning the facts in the case, issued a certificate of death by suicide.

Cook had been in ill health for a long while, and during the past two weeks was compelled to remain in his bed. That he contemplated self destruction, there can be no doubt. Owing to his feeble condition, Mr. Smith always went to see if he needed any assistance. Last night Cook stated that he would not need him. A few days ago he remarked to Mrs. Smith that it would be well to see an undertaker. Nothing, however, was thought of his strange remark at the time. Only a few days ago he visited the office of a real estate dealer and made his will.

Mr. Smith stated that about 2:30 o'clock this morning he heard a noise in the house which aroused him, although he did not get up to see what the trouble was. Nothing further was thought of the matter, and at 7:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Smith visited Cook's room for the purpose of arousing him. There she found Cook on the bed, with all his clothing on, and his hands clutching the weapon which plainly told the story of suicide.

Cook was a native of New Jersey. He had no relatives here. It is said that he has relatives in the far West, although he never gave any of his friends their names. During the civil war Cook served as a member of Company C, First Regiment, Wisconsin Volunteers, Heavy Artillery. The deceased was a pensioner, and he had been a resident of this city for several years past. His wife, who was Mrs. Hill, died several years ago.

The remains were removed to an undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, although it is expected that the interment will be in the National Cemetery here, and the funeral will be under the auspices of the local camp of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Confederate Sons Meet.

About fifty Sons of Confederate Veterans and a number of veterans assembled to-night in Lee Camp Hall and listened to stirring addresses by Robert E. Lee, Jr., of Fairfax County; Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, and Pointe W. Mahood, commissary general, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, of Washington.

Each of the speakers vividly told of the daring bravery of the Confederate soldier during the late war. The principal address of the evening was made by Mr. Lee.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. E. A. Gorman, who called the assemblage to order, and C. W. O'Mera acted as secretary.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. O'Mera announced that thirty-eight of those present had signed a paper signifying their intention of joining the proposed camp of sons of veterans. It was decided to hold another meeting Monday, December 2, when officers will be elected. A committee of three was appointed to draft a constitution and present a name for the camp. Upon motion all of those present pledged to support a committee to secure names of those eligible to join.

A man named James Dodd, apparently about forty years of age, was seized on a helpless condition shortly before 9 o'clock to-night by Policeman Henderson at the corner of Cameron and West streets. Dodd had to be conveyed to police headquarters in a wagon. It is said that he is dangerously ill, and has been without medical treatment for several days. After Dodd was conveyed to the station the services of a physician had not been procured at a late hour to-night, notwithstanding the fact that his case was regarded by the police officials as being urgent, and he was placed in some bedchamber and placed on the floor at the station house. It is regarded as more than probable that some effort will be made by the proper authorities to have Dodd taken to the hospital to-morrow.

Perseverance Tent, Independent Order of Redemptors, held an interesting meeting to-night at its hall, in North Fairfax street. During the evening speeches were made by L. D. Lyles, J. G. Hughes, J. H. Bartlett, George Sullivan, and others. Afterward a banquet was served.

Mrs. Elvira Hill's Will Probated.

In the Corporation Court to-day the will of Elvira Hill was admitted to probate, and her son, Zora Hill, qualified as executor. Requests made by the testatrix are as follows: To Eunice De Silva, $200 in trust; to her grandson, J. Lee Donnelly, a house on Fairfax street, between Wolfe and Wilkes street; to her daughter, Hattie Hill, a house on Prince street, between Payette and Payne streets, to her sons, Zora and J. M. Hill, each a house on Payne street, between King and Cameron streets. The remainder of her property she divides equally between her daughters, Mary E. and Hattie Hill. A codicil is attached to the will, in which house 213 Royal street is left to her daughters, Mary E. and Hattie Hill, and house 100 Prince street to Hattie Hill.

Arrested for Assault.

Drew Carlow was arrested this afternoon on a charge of assaulting and beating Frederick Hockstein, and Mary Hockstein, alias Mary Rodgers, was also taken into custody. It is alleged that the trio came from Johnstown, Pa., and that the woman was in a house in the northeast section of the city. It is said that the woman is Hockstein's wife. Hockstein was required to leave $100 collateral before he was liberated, and his wife left $25 collateral for her appearance in the police court to-morrow morning.

Shooters' Hill, just west of this city, is to be divided off into villa sites. Announcement is made that a number of Alexandria business men are furthering the enterprise. During the progress of the civil war, this hill served as a defense for Washington, immense emplacements being thrown up, which stand to-day.

Jeremiah Willis, colored, was arrested to-day by Deputy United States Marshal Joseph F. Glover on a charge of selling liquor without a government license. Willis was taken before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett and committed to jail until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when he will be given a preliminary hearing.

Announcement is made that the members of Alexandria Council, No. 33, and Belle Haven Council, No. 61, Junior Order of United Americans, will attend special Thanksgiving services, which will be held Sunday next at the Methodist Protestant Church. A special sermon will be delivered by Rev. G. I. Humphries, pastor.

It is said that at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the city council, which will be held to-morrow night, application will, perhaps, be made for an appropriation of about $1,000 for the fire department, the money to be used for purchasing new hose.

E. P. McPherson, of Chicago, and J. G. Coley, of Richmond, Va., were the guests of C. W. O'Mera to-day.

In the Corporation Court to-day F. P. Russell qualified as guardian of his son, Hunt Russell.

STEVE ADAMS TO GET BAIL.

Clarence Darrow Says the Required Bond Will Be Provided.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 25.—Steve Adams, the jury in whose trial for the murder of Fred Taylor reported a disagreement, was to-day admitted to bail at Rathdrum. Bail was fixed at $20,000. Attorney Darrow, for the defendant, announced that the bond would be provided soon.

It is expected that as soon as Adams is released on this bond he will be re-arrested on a warrant charging him with the murder of Arthur Collins at Telluride, Colo., in 1902. He was indicted for this murder last week.

Attorneys Darrow and Hawley are hurrying to Boise to appear in the Pettibone case, which was called to-day and adjourned to await their arrival.

BONI AS A HUMORIST.

Adopts the Role of "Shabby Gentle" to Further His Own Ends.

Paris, Nov. 25.—Count Boni de Castellane, who is nothing if not picturesque, is playing a shabby genteel role with a wealth of detail vastly amusing to his friends. He has taken to going about in a cab, the most dilapidated he can find, so he may say with his most charming smile and most expressive shrug: "You see, I am so poor now that I am reduced to this."

But when his children are permitted to visit him the dapper count goes out to take the air in a magnificent equipage, explaining:

"I have to do it. My children are used to this kind of thing, you know they are so rich."

PASTORS CONDEMN OFFICERS.

Will Bring Warship Dances to the Notice of the President.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Following the reading of the report of the committee appointed by the Presbyterian Ministers' Association to investigate the Sunday dancing on war ships at the League Island Navy Yard, and other asserted Sabbath breakings, that body to-day passed resolutions condemning the practice at their regular meeting.

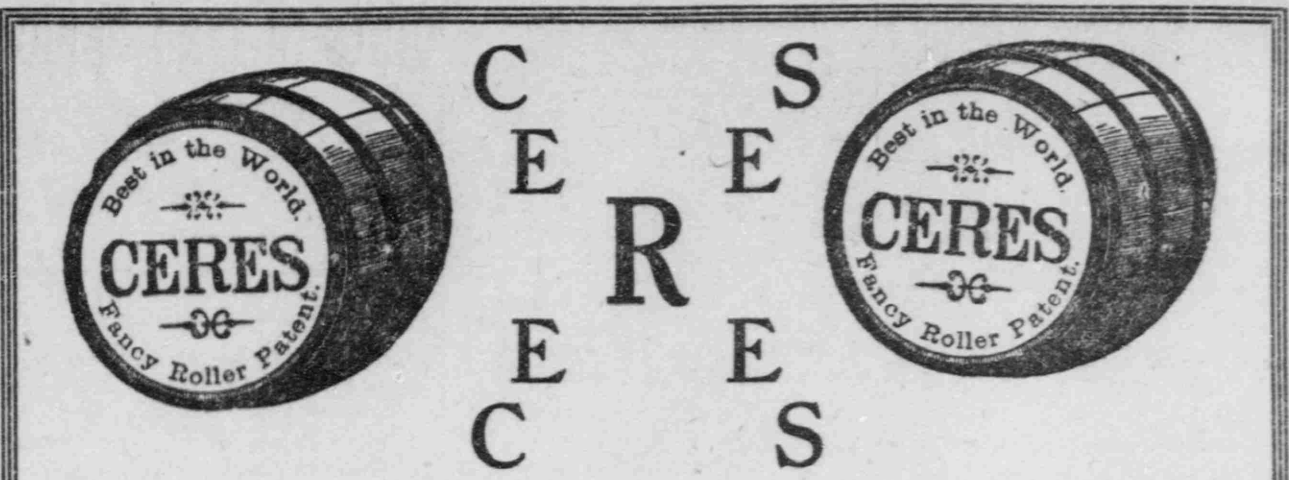

Capt. Pendleton, commandant of the yard, and other officers who, it is declared, have winked at the practice, were roundly scored and the matter will be brought to the attention of the Secretary of the Navy and President Roosevelt.

Suicide Aboard Fall River Boat.

New York, Nov. 25.—The Fall River steamboat Rhode Island got into port early this morning with a suicide aboard. The occupant of room 150 was lying in his berth, fully dressed, with a hole from a pistol bullet in his right temple. All that is known about the man is the name he gave the purser when he boarded the boat at Fall River, Frank Bowens. No papers were found on him.

German Biography of Roosevelt.

Berlin, Nov. 25.—"From Cavalryman to President," is the title of the first German biography of the President Roosevelt that has ever appeared here. It is just published semi-weekly by the Berlin house of Mittler & Son, and was written by Dr. Max Kullwick.

HOUSEKEEPERS: Please read the following carefully To Whom It May Concern:

We, the undersigned, herewith certify that on September 1, 1899, we baked a barrel of CERES FLOUR to test the yield in quantity, and obtained 320 loaves of magnificent light and white bread of one pound each. Although we are large bakers and have baked thousands of barrels of flour into bread, we freely confess that this is the largest and best output we have ever obtained from any flour. We acknowledge CERES FLOUR to be without a peer in quality, and the result obtained in point of output is simply phenomenal.

Subscribed and sworn to by Charles Corby, of the firm of Corby Bros., this 27th day of September, 1899. (Notary's Seal.)

Subscribed and sworn to by Charles Corby, of the firm of Corby Bros., this 27th day of September, 1899. (Notary's Seal.)

LEWIS I. O'NEAL, Notary Public.

The above certificate explains itself.

We have offered "CERES" Flour to the public for over 30 years, it has been making friends right along, and to-day it is acknowledged by the strongest competition that it is the best flour made.

There are many other good flours on the market, some for a little less money than "CERES" Flour, but there is not one of them that can begin to compete with it in quality, nor produce as many loaves of bread per barrel.

Ask your grocer for Ceres Flour, and refuse to accept a substitute.

"CERES" Flour Is Sold by All Grocers.

We Only Wholesale It.

BANK OFFICIALS ARRESTED.

Miner Promoter in New York Also Held on Charge of Forgery.

New York, Nov. 25.—James J. Graham, assistant cashier, and James W. Daly, paying teller of the Interborough Bank, at 9 Wall street, along with Alfred Burrows, a mining promoter, at 74 Broadway, were arrested to-day and held in $5,000 bail, charged with forgery and grand larceny.

The charge involves the specific forgery of a check for $2,000. Graham is charged with forging the check in the name of the bank's former president, David F. Walker, now living in Salt Lake City. Burrows is charged with falsifying the books. The Interborough Bank is a small institution, and is not a member of the clearing house. Its capital is $200,000.

WAR SHIPS NOT READY.

Despite Extra Time of Workmen, Fleet May Be Delayed.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—It is now stated here that there is a possibility that, despite the night and day and the Sunday work that is now being done aboard the battle ships here, it will scarcely be possible for them to leave the yards in time to go North, be docked, and returned to Hampton Roads in time to sail for the Pacific on schedule.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
